THE Dump Research Facilities have been terribly busy shredding their expenses claims for the last ten years. I mean who'd have thought the public would have gotten 'knocky' about perfectly okay claims for moat-cleaning and second homes, when they've all busy thieving handfuls of biros from work.

So what if a few deserving Dump Staff want ~~axnaxxislly2xxa~~ a new telly? Who wouldn't begrudge them some small comforts?

What else? Well Dump Research has proved conclusively that money is vital for happiness and in the spirit of 'you can never be too happy' ...keep fiddling the claim forms thinking for you, because you can't...

Dump Research

THAT means
YOU CAN HAVE A
